Before you return this form, please check the following.

- If you have moved out of Blackburn, Blackpool, Cumbria or Lancashire you should apply to your new local authority for a pass.
- If your current pass is issued by an authority other than Blackburn, Blackpool, Cumbria or Lancashire you should complete a new application form.
- If your pass expired more than 12 months ago you should complete a new application form.

Have you enclosed?

- A new photograph? The photograph must be a recent (taken within the last 6 months) passport style and quality colour photograph, it should have a plain, pale background and you must not be wearing sunglasses or headwear (exceptions will be made on religious or medical grounds but your full face must be visible).
- Proof of your residence? This can be a photocopy of a recent (dated within the last 3 months):
 - Bank statement (delivered to you by post).
 - Utility bill (delivered to you by post).
 - Council tax bill (current year).
- If you have changed your name since your last pass was issued you will need to enclose a copy of proof of name change e.g. marriage certificate or deed poll.

Please return your form by post.

You must ensure the correct postage is paid when you return your form; failure to pay the correct postage may result in the non-delivery of your application
